About conversations

By default, replies to messages are grouped into conversations. A conversation keeps all messages in a thread together, which makes it easier to keep track of them and reduces inbox clutter. Here's how a conversation appears in your Inbox:

Sender	Subject	Time
Sondra, me, Murthy (3)	Support Widget - next steps - Hi everyone,	Nov 29
Alice, me (2)	New website design - Thanks Alice. It looks c	Nov 29

Note that the number of messages in a conversation appears to the right of senders' names.

Here's what an opened conversation looks like:

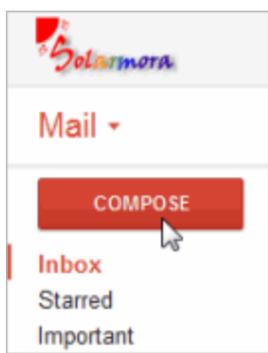

Note: You can control whether messages are grouped into conversations: Click the Gear icon and then Settings in the upper-right corner of your Inbox and, on the General tab, scroll to Conversation View.

- If Conversation View is off, new messages won't be grouped into conversations, and any existing conversations are ungrouped into separate messages.
- If Conversation View is on, you can't separate the messages in a conversation. However, if you want to send a reply but don't want it to be added to the conversation, you can simply change the subject line in your reply.

Compose a message

1. In the pane on the left, click COMPOSE.

2. In the To field, type the first letter or letters of a recipient's name to look up the address in your corporate directory.

Send a message

At the top of the message window, click SEND.

Tip: if you change your mind, click Discard. Use Save Now to save a draft to finish later.

A message appears at the top of the Mail window, confirming that your message was sent.

3. Enter the email addresses to which to forward the message, and add any notes in the message field.
